

2011 ENTERTAINMENT LINE-UP AT THE 23RD ANNUAL RICHMOND COUNTY FAIR

Wednesday Night from 6 to 10 p.m. enjoy Gospel Music by Thomasyne Acree and Zion Lottsburg Mass Choir
Other performers and individual performance times-TBA

Thursday Night from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. enjoy B2B on stage!

B2B is a Jimmy Buffett Tribute band located in Richmond, Virginia. Most of the band members are also long standing members of the Parrot Head Club of Richmond. B2B's main musical inspiration, of course, is Jimmy Buffett, but they also play a wide variety of music that ranges from The Beatles to Kenny Chesney. B2B also has a talented pool of song writers and have penned several original tunes that range in subject from spending a little time at the "Rivah" to dealing with such topical items as "Viagra". The main ingredient in any B2B performance is the same laid back, tropical attitude that Jimmy Buffett displays whenever he performs. So pour yourself a margarita or pop the top on a bottle of Corona, kick off your shoes and you will find yourself "wasting away in Margaritaville."

Friday Night enjoy Milford Station Bluegrass Band from 6 to 7:45 p.m.

And

Glen Shelton from 8 to 11 p.m.

Glen has worked with many Nashville recording artists since 1995, and he won the Colgate Country Showdown in 2002. His first national radio release was a self-written Top 40 hit on the country charts in 2004. He has continued to work with well-known artists such as Jimmy Fortune who recorded with Glen on Glen's latest album. This album includes two self-written songs that hit the Top 10 (#3 and #6) on the nationwide Christian Country Top 100 in 2009. Glen is also an ICM (Inspirational Country Music) New Artist Of The Year nominee, and an ICGMA (International Country Gospel Music Association) Male Horizon and Crossover Artist nominee. The most popular question people ask Glen when they hear him for the first time is "Where have you been?"

Saturday Night enjoy Royalti Blues Band from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

The Royalti Blues Band was started in 2009 by Mr. Elwood Royal, Jr. They occasionally play with Big G & Total Control. The band plays blues, R&B and southern soul.

and Jeff Robbins at various times from 6 to 11 p.m.

Look for the Special Tent On Fairgrounds

Playing traditional Appalachian music on fiddle, dulcimer, autoharp, mandolin & banjo. Bring your own instrument, and sit in on a casual "jam session" with Jeff!

From the hills of southeastern Virginia, Jeff Robbins grew up with the authentic mountain sounds that he has taken to countless fairs and festivals, two World's Fairs, television, as well as schools and libraries throughout the United States. Jeff performed on the steps of the Smithsonian for the Library of Congress. He also opened for the Norman Rockwell exhibit in Vero Beach, FL. 2011 marked Jeff's 29th year touring with over 7000 performances. Before audiences of any age or background, Jeff permits no passivity in his listeners, quickly involving them in sing-a-longs and simple square dances. Jeff has 11 recordings, one of which, "Shake Your Little Foot" features Doc and Merle Watson. This album has recently been re-released on, "Little King Records."

And

Wild Country Band, Everyone's Hometown Favorite at the Fair from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m."
